

Ezra, Nehemiah and Esther

Page Titles

Page	Title
634	Jews freed and sent back to Jerusalem
635	List of returning Jews
636	List of returning Jews
637	Rebuilding of the Temple
638	Trouble with Temple rebuild
639	Prophets Haggai and Zechariah
640	Trouble with Temple rebuild
641	Temple finished and dedicated
642	Ezra (a scribe) leaves Babylon for Jerusalem
643	The king helps with the Temple
644	Ezra's journey to Jerusalem
645	Jews intermarry with Canaanites
646	Jews repent
647	Ezra gathers the people
648	Nehemiah mourns for the Jews
649	Nehemiah receives royal commission to rebuild Temple walls
650	Rebuilding of Temple walls
651	Rebuilding of Temple walls
652	Enemies try to stop building of walls
653	Building is not stopped
654	Nehemiah stands strong against enemies
655	Walls finished
656	Jews who returned from Babylon
657	Jews who returned from Babylon
658	Ezra teaches people the Law of Moses
659	Jews fast and repent
660	Levites praise the Lord
661	Levites praise the Lord
662	People covenant to keep the commandments
663	Decision of who would live in Jerusalem
664	Who would live in the cities
665	Priests and Levites
666	Levites appointed over Temple
667	Nehemiah corrects sinful behavior
668	King of Persia has a royal feast
669	The Queen refuses the kings command and is no longer Queen
670	Esther (a Jew) becomes the new Queen of Persia

671	Haman (the chief minister) wants all Jews killed
672	Jews afraid for their lives
673	Esther risks her life by going to the King uninvited
674	Mordecai given honors and Haman mourns.
675	Esther exposes Haman's plot. Haman is hung
676	King reverses command to have Jews killed
677	Jews slay their enemies
678	Feast of Purim