LOVE - THE RED HEADED HOSTESS

www.theredheadedhostess.com

Here are some activity pages to help your children #LIGHTtheWORLD this Christmas. Just print them and have them ready to go at the beginning of the month! We suggest that you discuss the scripture (in the ornament) each day and watch the daily video at mormon.org, and then do the activity on each page.

We hope this helps you have a wonderful and meaningful Christmas!

Be extra kind to your siblings and parents today. Cut out these stars and write your name on them. Do acts of service for your family throughout the day and leave a star behind. For example, if you make someone's bed, leave a star on their bed.

"Neighbors" are not just people in your neighborhood, but all people. Even those you go to school with are your "neighbors", even if it is someone you do not know well or know at all. Before school make some goals of what you can do to help others feel loved today.

Sometimes we judge and think that a person is bad, mean, or not a good person. There is a saying that says, "do not judge my story by the chapter you walked in on." Do at least one of the following things below to learn more about this principle today.

Watch "A Christmas Carol" and discuss the following things after:

What if I had decided that Ebenezer Scrooge was a bad person and thought he had no hope of doing good things?

What did Ebenezer Scrooge need in order to start doing good?

What can I learn from this story?

Watch or read "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" and talk about how others judged Rudolph and what we can learn from this story.

Have your parents tell you about a time they had judged someone negatively and what they had learned from that experience.

Think of someone you have judged negatively. Do something kind for them and let them know that you care about them.

In the space below, write what you learned about judging others.
