- a- Genesis 1:26-27
- b- Malachi 3:8-10
- c- Exodus 20:3-17
- d- 1 Samuel 16:7

47- “I readily confess that I would find no peace, neither happiness nor safety, in a world without repentance. I do not know what I should do if there were no way for me to erase my mistakes. The agony would be more than I could bear.”

(President Boyd K. Packer)

- a- Moses 7:18
- b- Amos 3:7
- c- Isaiah 1:18
- d- Daniel 2:44-45

48- “The Sabbath is a holy day in which to do worthy and holy things. Abstinence from work and recreation is important but insufficient. The Sabbath calls for constructive thoughts and acts, and if one merely lounges about doing nothing on the Sabbath, he is breaking it.” (President Spencer W. Kimball, Miracle of Forgiveness, 96-87)

- a- Exodus 20:3-17
- b- Genesis 39:9
- c- Exodus 33:11
- d- Isaiah 53:3-5

49- “If any of us could now see the God we are trying to serve – if we could see our father who dwells in the heavens, we should learn that we are as well acquainted with him as we are with our earthly father; and he would be as familiar to us in the expression of his countenance and we should be ready to embrace him... if we had the privilege. And still we, unless the vision of the Spirit is opened to us, know nothing about God. You know much about him, if you did but realize it. And there is no other one item that will so astound you, when your eyes are opened in eternity as to think that you were so stupid in the body.” (Brigham Young, JD, 8:30)

- a- Isaiah 1:18
- b- Malachi 4:5-6
- c- Genesis 1:26-27
- d- Joshua 24:15

50. “There is an old saying that states: It is better to prepare and prevent than it is to repair and repent. How true that is of the law of chastity. The first line of defense is in keeping ourselves morally clean is to prepare ourselves to resist temptation and prevent ourselves from falling into sin.” (Ezra Taft Benson, New Era, Jan 1984, 4)
